FLOOR DEBATE

May 8, 2001

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Thank you, Mr. President. Members, I appreciate you staying a little later than what we'd planned for this evening, but I think it was well worth the time. The budget bills will go over this evening. And to give you a little planning, I won't schedule Final Reading of bills until we get back the vetoes from the budget, so we will know what has been vetoed. We'll probably take those up before we will start to read Final Reading A bills. Redistricting is the other question I get a lot of. We've not gotten all the bills out of committee, mechanically out of committee. We do have Public Service, Board of Education, the Regents, and the Supreme Court. I would anticipate taking those up on Thursday; not taking up this week Congress or the Legislature, they will come up next week. And tomorrow evening I think it would be around 6:30, if we could get that, that's been working real well and we've been making good progress. Again, thank you for staying and I think there is a motion on the desk. Thanks, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Mr. President, Speaker Kristensen would move to adjourn until nine o'clock, tomorrow morning.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Question is, shall the Legislature adjourn? Those in favor say aye. Opposed nay. The Legislature adjourns.
